TVSD SENIORS VISIT TOMB OF THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER

ELVERSON, PA – Four Twin Valley High School seniors who participate in the STEP Alternative Education Program recently visited the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. They participated in the wreath laying ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery. The students, Ryan Dennis, Michael Buchanan, Shawn Ferrell and Betsy McAfee, placed a wreath, with “Twin Valley High School” noted on the ribbons, on the tomb. The ceremony is memorial in purpose and patriotic in nature. The ceremonial party consists of the Relief Commander at the Tomb, and the wreath bearers or official wreath party assist with placing the wreath. A bugler also plays “Taps.”

Mrs. Susan Plewa, a teacher for the STEP program, accompanied the students to the ceremony and noted that she is very proud of these students and honored to have them represent Twin Valley in this ceremony.
