TWIN VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL TO HOST COURSE SELECTION NIGHT

Elverson, PA – The Twin Valley High School (TVHS) Guidance Department will host an informational course selection meeting for parents of students entering grades 9 through 12 during the 2009-2010 school year on Thursday, February 19, 2009 beginning at 6:30 PM at the high school.

The general information meeting will begin in the auditorium where a video presentation will be shown regarding course offerings, information on changes that will occur during the next school year, as well as general discussion.

Following the presentation, parents of current 8th grade students who will enter the school in 2009 in the 9th grade, are invited to remain for a question and answer session with members of the Guidance staff. All other parents will have the opportunity to meet with TVHS Department Heads in the school cafeteria in order to gain further understanding about the course selection process, as well as view informational displays.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Guidance Department at 610-286-8630.
